

"Q.E.D." Moms

“Quod erat demonstrandum” - Sorry, it's Latin. It's typically used at the end of a mathematical proof. It means 'as it was to be demonstrated or proved.’

2 Timothy 1:5 New International Version

I am reminded of your sincere faith, which first lived in your grandmother Lois and in your mother Eunice and, I am persuaded, now lives in you also.

Notice: faith lived in,

1. Faith. The religion one practices. Like a doctor practicing medicine.
2. To believe and trust. I have faith in you.
3. I trust in God that when complete, defines the efforts of life.

To understand what Paul is referring to look at

1 Timothy 1:3-6

3 As I urged you when I went into Macedonia, stay there in Ephesus so that you may command certain people not to teach false doctrines any longer 4 or to devote themselves to myths and endless genealogies. Such things promote controversial speculations rather than advancing God’s work—which is by faith. 5 The goal of this command is love, which comes from a pure heart and a good conscience and a sincere faith. 6 Some have departed from these and have turned to meaningless talk.

Using 1 Timothy 1, Paul is speaking of a faith the defines efforts. It is also complete i.e. sincere and without question, pure heart and good conscience

Now back to 2 Timothy 1 and QED Moms

2 Timothy 1:3-5

I thank God, whom I serve, as my ancestors did, with a clear conscience, as night and day I constantly remember you in my prayers. 4 Recalling your tears, I long to see you, so that I may be filled with joy. 5 I am reminded of your sincere faith, which first lived in your grandmother Lois and in your mother Eunice and, I am persuaded, now lives in you also

QED moms are moms that, by the way they live their life, proves or demonstrates their faith is sincere

How?
